LEGAL COUNSEL

Marcus Jones, Board Attorney briefly discussed drafting a letter to Larry Brown per the Board's request, regarding concerns with the Department of Professional Licensing. No further action was required.

Mr. Jones discussed the issue of equine dentistry with the Board. Dr. Wills suggested opening up the practice act to include lay equine dentists. This would allow the Board to include a dental permit for equine dentists and to have the authority to regulate equine dentistry here in Kentucky. No further action was required.

Louise Cooke, KVMA Executive Director also discussed with the Board the reporting of animal abuse and the possibly of including it in their practice act should the Board decide to open it up again for additional changes. No further action was required.
